

PROPOSE 'TAKE-OVER' CONSTRUCTION OF SCHOOL PBC UNHAPPY

Town Manager Dick Henneberger met with the Permanent Building Committee, Tuesday evening, to make their acquaintance, and to go over the plans of the Library with that committee.

Chairman Michelson discussed for the benefit of the new TM the whys and wherefores of the PBC and explained the three articles to be presented at the coming Special Town Meeting, namely, acquisition of school sites, and library appropriation.

Supt. of Schools Harold Shea mentioned the total capacity the public schools are now carrying, and said in passing that if the West Intermediate School is not completed by next September Wilmington will face double sessions again.

Blue prints of the final approved library plans, with stair changes as noted in the last meeting were presented, and a letter is to be sent to the Reading Municipal Light Co asking it to prepare a complete survey of cost estimates for electric hearing of the library.

There was more discussion of payment of bills to sub-contractors of the Woburn Street School. It was resolved to turn over to the architect for approval of legitimate claims, and pay direct, in order to avoid any court claims. Currier remarked that it should all be cleaned up by next meeting, to which Michelson replied that 'it might as well - it's only been a year since we opened it up'.

The Clerk of the Works for the West School reported that the slump tests are being made and are OK. He also reported that an additional 25 yards of concrete should be deducted from estimate #3, some $1,015. Then followed a barrage of disparaging remarks from all board members about the delays in construction.

Currier: I'm not happy - eight, six men -- what's going on? What's the matter with him (i.e. the contractor)? There's not a steel strike. A beautiful summer lost!

Guarino: There was a steel strike, and he read a letter declaring 30 days delay supposedly due to strike.

Barry: Could have place order elsewhere - there was only one on strike.

Michelson: Should be up in the Hundred Thousand Dollar category and the total net amount accomplished is now only in the Sixty Thousands (Dollars).

Barry: When's steel due now, John?

Guarino: Middle of month.

Michelson: Guestimates instead of Estimates, because of the contractor not adhering to the progress schedule.

Clerk of the Works Kraskinsky reported that oil tanks are in, and part of the heating equipment delivered. The leaching field is started.

EYE TESTS FOR CHILDREN: A total of 210 Wilmington children, about to enter the first grade, had their eyes tested by members of the Wilmington Lions Club, on the Saturday before school began.

Burlington's Civil Defense Truck

Jaycees just love it

It was, the Wilmington Junior Chamber of Commerce declared, their most successful of all coffee-watches.

The Young Men of the Future served a total of 5323 cups of coffee, over the weekend of Labor Day, to motorists on Route 93. There was a two day stand on the northbound lanes, and a two day stand on the southbound lanes, each night starting at dusk and lasting until about 1:30 am.

The first two nights - well, there was a problem about lighting.

In prior years (this is the fifth season for the Labor Day Coffee Watches) the Jaycees have used Wilmington's Civil Defense Generator, to provide light.

This year there was something wrong. The generator just would not work. It had not been working for three months.

The Jaycees borrowed several smaller generators, including one from Uncle Avco, but it wasn't the same thing.

Northbound motorists did not see the 'Coffee-Watch' stand until they had passed the entrance to the parking lot, near Park Street. On occasion the horrified Jaycees saw motorists back up, on Route 93, to get to the entrance, and the cup of coffee.

One Jaycee - Jim Miceli, remembered seeing a Civil Defense truck from Burlington, exhibited at the annual Town Meeting, and he went over to thwt town and borrowed it, for the last two nights. What a difference!

Plenty of electricity. There was a 1500 watt flood light, and a 500 watt flood light, and there were flashing lights to warn the motorists.

No more did the Jaycees see motorists backing up, and inviting accidents, to get to that coffee. They just kept busy, and happy too, mzkng more coffee for the crowds that stopped.

At the next annual Town Meeting, the Jaycees declare, they will be 100% behind any effort to get a Civil Defense truck for Wilmington such as Burlington has.

TOM MCGUINNESS IS PRESIDENT OF TOWN EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION

Tom McGuinness of Lincoln St was elected president of the Town Employee's Association, last night in a meeting in the Legion Hall. Last year's vice president, he is a member of the Highway Department.

Joseph Cuoco was elected Vice President, Mrs. Marion Murphy of Carson Avenue secretary, and Mrs. Vera Mills treasurer.

IT'S GETTING TO THAT SEASON AGAIN: And Wilmington's football squad is practicing every afternoon, behind the High School. Kirk Anderson (50) is shown here giving a straight-arm to Billy Harrison, in a practice session.

The season opens on Sept. 25th against Andover.

Candlepin Bowling

Wilmington Town Candlepin Bowling League is forming its new season. It's looking for a team with 5 to 7 men, or any business in town which wants to enter a team.

Court and Board of Appeals Baby Beach Battles

Angle Sorrentino, the embattled owner of Baby Beach, at Silver Lake, was up against it, this week.

Last Friday a Deputy Sheriff served a subpoena on Angle, at his Lowell home, ordering him to appear at the Cambridge Superior Court next Monday, to answer to a charge of conducting illegal operations, according to the Wilmington Zoning By-Law.

Tuesday night Angle faced 18 of his neighbors on Grove Avenue, in a Board of Appeals hearing in the Town Hall.

Angle was represented by Atty Fred Corum of Salem Street, and his Grove Avenue neighbors were had been variances in 1946-7-8-9, 'somewhere, this is not a non-conforming right.

Chairman Gage of the Board of Appeals made a ruling that seemed to say there was a non-conforming use.

McQuade then testified that the Selectmen gave him a license for his boat renting, and that every year he renewed it. In an answer to Dick George of Lawrence Court, one of the spectators, McQuade testified he had charged for parking cars 'for years'.

In answer to a direct question from Chairman Gage, McQuade declared he had never charged for NO RELATIVES: Paul McQuade, (left) testified to objectionable 'nuisances', sand, actions on the part of bathers, etc. He was not allowed to exhibit the colored photographs he had taken.

His neighbor, Tom McQuade (checked shirt) testified in favor of Sorrentino, to whom he had sold the beach. Between them is Attorney Courtney.

represented by Atty Joe Courtney, former Wilmington Town Manager. The strategy of the two attorneys was simple.

Corum sought to prove that the beach had 'non-conforming' rights while Courtney sought to prove that the operation was a nuisance.

Corum began the case by asking the Board to make rulings on a list of statements.

Because of a hoarse voice, he had to speak softly. He was frequently interrupted by listeners who were unable to hear what was going on.

Corum's first witness was Tom McQuade, former owner of the beach, and the man who had sold it two years ago to Angle, for the sum of $5000.

Tom McQuade testified that he had been on Grove Avenue for 15 to 17 years, and that he had operated a business of a bathing beach and parking cars. He had charged for the parking of cars, but never for the privilege of bathing, and this was prior to 1949.

Minot Anderson, Building Inspector, stated that McQuade had a non-conforming use from the Board of Appeals for renting boats, and that he was charging for the parking of cars, as an auxiliary use.

The statement was contested by Courtney, who stated that if there swimming.

Danny Gillis, of the Planning Board told the Board of the records of his board.

He read what he termed 'Violations of Zoning' on Aug. 25, 1959 - 'Commercial Parking at McQuades - single residence area.

Another report was dated Feb. 2, 1960.

Courtney interrupted to say that it was not clear what the petitioner was seeking - a variance, or authorization for a non-conforming use.

Gage: Mr. McQuade has had for years a non-conforming use to park cars and rent boats - he sold to Mr. Sorrentino.

Now Mr. Sorrentino is asking for authorization to continue.

Sorrentino interrupted to say that kids had broken his boats, that he kept the water clean and did not charge for bathing.

'I entice them' he said, 'to go into the water'.

Corum said that he was not asking for a variance (for Baby Beach). This was in reply to a question by Courtney, as to which section of the by-law was involved in a request for a variance.

Gage again spoke up to say that the object of the hearing was for authority to operate a commercial beach with authorized parking.

Dick George: No boating involved?

Gage: No boating involved. He added: It is pretty well established that this is a non-conforming use.

Courtney raised a few points: It was, he said, first indicated that a variance was granted for the renting of boats in 1949-50.

'There is' he said, 'in the custody of the Town Clerk, a letter from the Town Counsel, that this right is not a right conferred on the land, but to a person'.

Much has been made, Courtney said, of the non conforming use prior to the By Laws. The original by laws in 1932 prohibited any use not named. What ever illegal uses there are were not prior to 1932.

Courtney went into details about points that he considered pertinent on the present day by law - lack of a plan approved by the Town Engineer, no permanent paving for the parking area, --

Corum: The Law pertaining to parking was never adopted by the town, General Laws 140A.

Gage: Did the town accept?

Anderson: I asked the Town Clerk and she said No.

Courtney: Not material. The Zoning By Law, the town has power to prescribe uses under which parking can be carried out.

Anderson: But this was prior to the By Law - in 1949.

Courtney: In 1932 the town first adopted a by law. In 1934 it was amended, again in 1955. The Zoning By Law in 1932 governed the use of the land. Any violation in my opinion was not legal.

Nothing would allow an illegal use prior to 1955 to be made into a legal use.

The hearing on the first part was closed at 9:28 pm.

Request for rulings

In his opening statement, Atty Fred Corum requested that the Board of Appeals make rulings on six statements.

1. That Silver Lake is a Great Pond, and the ownership thereof is in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to the low water mark as defined by the General Laws of Massachusetts, Chap. 91, Sec. 35.

2. The waterfront may be the most valuable portion of a tract of land adjacent to the water. Title carries the Riparian Rights and gives the opportunity to make the land commercially valuable.

3. Great Ponds are public property of the Commonwealth and the right of using and enjoying which is common to all, to take water or ice, as well as fishing, fowling, bathing, boating or skating. Paine v. Woods, 108 Mass 160 at 169.

4. The commercial uses of the premises owned by Angelo and Christina Sorrentino for bathing and parking cars as well as boating was an existing nonconforming use at the time of the adoption of the Zoning Ordinance by the Town of Wilmington and hence was unaffected by the Zoning Ordinances, General Laws of Mass, Chap 40, Sec. 26. See Building Commissioner v. McGrath, 312 Mass 461.

5. A nonconforming use may not only be continued, but also increased in size. Cochran v. Raemer, 287 Mass. 500 at 508.

6. Parking of automobiles on the land of Webster T. Grace and the Ten Hill Ice Company is an accessory use to bathing in the beach of Angela and Christian Sorrentino, known as 'Baby Beach' for many years.

Respectfully submitted

Courtney' speech at the close of the second hearing

Sorrentino has continued to operate in open defiance of the by-laws of the town and in disregard of the legitimate rights of neighboring home owners.

1. This operation has been conducted in violation of the laws and regulations of Wilmington, since September of 1963.

2. Although the operation of a commercial beach without special permission of the Board of Appeals violates the Zoning By-Law, Sorrentino has had the effrontery to advertise his illegal operation both (1) by signs and (2) by advertisements in out-of-town newspapers.

3. In defiance of the Zoning By-Law, Sorrentino has established a schedule of charges for persons who patronize his beach:

25¢ for 'walk-ons'
$1.00 for automobiles on Saturday and Sunday
50¢ for automobiles on week-days

4. Although the Zoning By-Law requires that there must be provided sufficient off-street parking with a permanent surface within 300 feet of the principal use, Sorrentino has operated with total disregard for this provision - and has made no effort to comply with this Zoning By-Law requirement.

5. Although the Zoning By-Law requires that any out door commercial recreation use must be located at least 50 feet from side and rear lot lines, Sorrentino operates to the entire limit of his property.

6. Although the Zoning By-Law requires that commercial parking lots and commercial outdoor recreational uses shall be screened by 'a densely planted strip of shrubs, trees or other suitable planting at least 4 feet wide and 4 feet high' where located within 50 feet of a residential district, this requirement has also been cheerfully ignored by Sorrentino.

7. Although the Zoning By-Law prescribes minimum areas and dimensions and set-back requirements, Sorrentino is in open violation of the remainder.

For example:

In a Single Residence B Area, a use permitted on Appeal must have a minimum lot area of 20,000 square feet, and a minimum frontage of 150 feet. The minimum set-back from the center line of the street is 50 feet, and the minimum front yard depth is 30 feet.

8. Perhaps the most outrageous feature of Sorrentino's performance to date is the fact that he has continued to operate in violation of the Zoning By-Law, even after he filed his application for a special permit to the Board of Appeals

Sorrentino has violated the laws of the Commonwealth in the conduct of his illegal operation.

1. Zoning statute, generally violated.

2. G.L., C.131, S.117C (c.220, Acts of 1965) No person shall... fill...any bank...bordering on any inland waters without (1) filing written notice of his intention, including necessary plans, with the Board of Selectmen, and with the DPW and Dir. of Natural Resources; and (2) the Selectmen shall hold a public hearing within 10 days of said notice.

The Selectmen may recommend measures to protect the public interest.

The DPW shall determine whether the action will violate GL C.91.

Whoever violates this section shall be punished by (1) a fine of not more than $100, and (2) six months imprisonment, or both.

3. GL, C.91, S.19. Except as authorized by the General Court and as provided in this chapter (C.91),...no...land (shall be) filled or other...encroachment made, in, over, or upon the waters of any great pond below the natural high water mark.

Arguments & Allegations

Sorrentino's operation constitutes (1) a public nuisance, (2) an invasion of the property rights of residents in the vicinity, including their right to the quiet enjoyment of their property, and (3) a threat to the property values of homes in the immediate vicinity.

A. Public Nuisance

1. Although Sorrentino has posted a sign which limits swimming to a time period from 9 am to 9 pm, he has failed to enforce this condition.

(a) Swimming and noisy activity continues on many nights until the early hours of the morning. In itself, this violates the By-Laws of the Town of Wilmington.

Evidence: By-Laws; Ch. 5, S. 20 -- Prohibits swimming between 12 midnight and 6 am.

2. Sorrentino has failed to provide reasonable protection for the property of abutters and other property owners in the vicinity.

(a) He has not erected any fence or other effective barrier to prevent those who use his beach from trespassing on neighboring property - and such trespassing occurs daily.

(b) He has failed to provide for any control over the use of his property after he leaves at night. Persons continue to use the beach after he leaves without supervision and control.

(c) He has failed to provide toilet facilities or bathhouse facilities where the patrons of his beach can change their clothes. As a result, (1) his patrons change

Guarino said that the compaction tests to be completed by Engineer Brown. More bother about the change in the road between the Boutwell School and the West Intermediate School. The White Co. has billed an additional $4-8, however the PBC says the town is owed $1,000 by the same contractor.

Guarino explained that the White Co requested for its own convenience the straightening out of a curve in the roadway, and as it was not a change made by the town, the town shouldn't be billed for the change.

Harold Shea withdrew a request to change an audio room to a regular classroom, in view of the difficulties with the construction company, for fear of incurring a tremendous extra expense for the town.

Michelson asked the new TM if half a million (for a library) would fit in with his budget. Henneberger replied that it was an easy figure to remember, but a big one. 'I'm a little familiar with New England Town Meetings - everyone gets in the act!'

Mr Shea asked the board if everything had been done to hurry up the completion of the West Intermediate School. The reply was that all that could be done now was to enforce the liquidated damages, and disregard the progress schedule.

Barry suggested that the architect take over the job, and Michelson quoted the General Laws which in effect says that under certain conditions the construction can be taken over with the approval of the architect, and resulting costs deducted from original construction contract, etc.

Barry moved that the White Co. bonding company be notified and remarked that the 'teeth' in the contract should be exercised.

An aside was made, towards the solving of the mystery of so few workers on the job at the West School. - it was intimated that the construction company perhaps rented the cement forms, and did not want to rent very many, so they didn't need hardly any workers.

It was resolved to send a Registered Letter to the Maryland Casualty Company, the bonding company for the general contractor, explaining the reasons for resorting to Articles 21 and 22 of General Conditions. Mr. Guarino said it would be no trouble at all to find some other construction company to finish the job.

At this point the Happy Library Group entered - Mrs Neilson, Mrs Chipman, Miss Allen, and Kelman and Buzzell.

Ralph Kelman mentioned the possibility of some changes in stack spacing on the floor - more space between each stack. Michelson discussed estimates including built in furniture and suggested the Library Board draw up specifications for moveable furniture to be left for bidding.

Currier wondered why the library construction was roughly estimated at $22 per square foot, to which Mrs. Neilson replied that she understood that library construction in this part of the state ran from $20 to $22. Michelson requested an estimate in units from Guarino, and requested Mr. Buzzell to prepare article for the Special Town Meeting.

A brochure complete with elevations and floor plans, estimates, etc. is to be prepared by the Library Committee for Sept. 15th.

Sort of a Brother-in-law act

TIM PILLAR, of Wildwood Street, in his first year of backyard gardening, grew this sunflower that measured 19 1/2 inches across.

NOT TO BE OUTDONE: His Brother-in-Law, John Ella, went down to Rockport Sunday, and caught this 35 pound Striper, off the rocks. It was the first time that John ever went salt water fishing, and natives of Rockport declared that they had never heard of anyone catching a striper off the rocks - with a $5 fishing pole, too!

their clothes openly on the beach, or in their cars; and (2) his patrons trespass on neighboring property as a substitute for adequate enclosed, sanitary plumbing facilities.

3. Sorrentino allows and encourages excessive parking on the inadequate land area of both beaches - Grove Avenue and Main Street. This creates a very hazardous traffic condition, so that (a) cars, which are frequently parked in a double line on his beach, are constantly moving in and off the narrow, single-lane traffic pattern on Main Street; and in and off the extremely narrow travelled way on Grove Ave. (b) Cars frequently park on Grove Avenue in spite of 'No Parking' signs. This is most common among Sorrentino's patrons who come to pick up and drop off children and other persons at his beach. This illegal parking which is induced and permitted by Sorrentino, creates an even more severe traffic block and hazardous driving conditions. (c) Many patrons of the beach are able to back out of their 'parking lot' only by backing into the driveways of the neighboring properties.

4. Motorboats, which are a growing danger to swimmers at Silver Lake, are allowed to be launched from the beach area controlled by Sorrentino - who charges a 50¢ launching fee for this privilege. This results in motor boats moving in and out of the beach area which is often crowded with swimmers.

(a) Some of these boats are used for water skiing - which requires motors with horsepower far greater than should be permitted on Silver Lake.

5. The failure of Sorrentino to provide the off-street parking required by the Zoning By-Law, (IV-3, Off-Street Parking), not only results in heavy clouds of dust and sand, but also causes neighboring property to be inundated with wind-blown sand and dust. This condition does not exist on neighboring private beach areas where grass and undergrowth protects the ground from such erosion.

6. The failure of Sorrentino to provide adequate fencing, control and supervision, has resulted in rubbish and waste paper being blown onto the land of abutters and neighbors. Every week the neighboring property owners must clear their land of beer cans, and whiskey and pop bottles which are thrown on their land by some of Sorrentino's patrons.

Superior Court
Bill of Complaint
served on Sorrentino last Friday

Middlesex ss, Superior Court in Equity.

Town of Wilmington, a municipal corporation of the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Plaintiff, vs.

Angelo Sorrentino and Christina Sorrentino of Wilmington in the County of Middlesex, Webster T. Grace, of North Reading, in said Middlesex County, and Ten Hill Ice Company of said North Reading in said Middlesex County, Defendants

Bill of Complaint

Respectfully represents the plaintiff that:

1. It is a municipal corporation of the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

2. The defendants, Angelo Sorrentino and Christina Sorrentino, are the owners of record of a parcel of land on Grove Avenue in the Town of Wilmington shown as parcel 111 on Assessor's Plan 45.

3. The defendant, Webster T. Grace, is the owner of record of a parcel of land on Main Street in said Town of Wilmington shown as parcel 118 on said Assessor's Plan 4.

4. The defendant, Ten Hill Ice Company, is the owner of record of a parcel of land on Main Street in said Town of Wilmington shown as parcel 117 on said Assessor's Plan.

5. The defendant, Angelo Sorrentino, conducts the business hereinafter described upon the three above-mentioned lots.

6. The three above-mentioned lots are contiguous and are located on the southeasterly side of Silver Lake, a great pond in the Town of Wilmington. The Sorrentino lot is in an area designated as Residence B District, and the other two lots are in part in an area designated Residence B District and the remainder in an area designated Neighborhood Business District, under the zoning bylaw of the Town of Wilmington hereinafter mentioned.

7. On or about December 16, 1955, there became effective in said Town a new zoning bylaw and zoning act which had been duly adopted by the Town and approved by the Attorney General in accordance with law. A copy of those sections of the bylaw relating to Residence Districts and to Neighborhood Business Districts is attached hereto and marked Exhibit 'A'. By Section I-2B, it is provided that 'any use not specifically listed or otherwise permitted in a district herein shall be deemed as prohibited'.

8. The defendant, Angelo Sorrentino, is presently conducting a business of operating a bathing beach for the general public on the three lots mentioned above. In connection with such operation, he charges a fee for use of the premises and the bathing beach and charges an additional fee for parking. He presently provides picnic tables, seats and umbrellas for the use of his customers. The operation of this business is advertised to the general public both by signs on the premises and by advertisements in newspapers of general circulation.

9. As a result of the foregoing actions by the defendant, Angelo Sorrentino, large numbers of persons have assembled on the above-mentioned lots of land, parking very large numbers of cars on the lots in areas immediately contiguous to neighboring lots and to the streets; dirt, dust, sand and refuse have been strewn over the adjoining lots, the public roads and Silver Lake itself, and the operation has been highly detrimental to persons living in the vicinity or on the borders of Silver Lake.

10. In addition, a serious traffic hazard has been created because of the volume of traffic flowing in and out of the above-mentioned lots over roads not designed for such use.

11. The above-described uses of the premises involved have never been authorized on appeal by the Board of Appeals pursuant to the zoning by-law.

12. The above-described use of the premises is in contravention of the zoning bylaw of the Town of Wilmington, which Town has sustained substantial damages on account of the misuse of the premises.

13. Under the provisions of said zoning bylaw, its enforcement is made the duty of the Building Inspector, who is Minot J. Anderson, a resident of said Wilmington.

WHEREFORE the plaintiff prays First: That a restraining order may issue forthwith temporarily restraining the defendants and their respective attorneys, servants, agents, and employees from using or permitting use of the above-described premises for the purpose of operating a commercial bathing beach, permitting cars to be parked thereon, or otherwise violating the applicable provisions of the Wilmington zoning bylaw.

Second: That a short order of notice issue to the defendants requiring them to show cause. Third: That the defendants and their respective attorneys, servants, agents and employees be permanently enjoined until further order of the Court from continuing to operate a commercial bathing beach, permitting cars to be parked thereon, or otherwise violating the applicable provisions of the Wilmington zoning bylaw.

Fourth: For such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and proper.

TOWN OF WILMINGTON

September 5, 1965

Dear Larz,
'Best of luck, Uncle Vinnie'
This week the high school yearbook 'The Hourglass' came off the press. The class of 1965 dedicated the yearbook to Mr. Vincent J. Gallucci. The dedication reads as follows:

'We, the Class of 1965, wish to express our gratitude to our great friend and guidance counselor, Mr. Vincent J. Gallucci. Affectionally known to us as 'Uncle Vinnie', he has dedicated himself to assisting each member of our class in reaching our goals and fulfilling our dreams for the future.

Whenever we had a problem, personal or otherwise, he was always there to hear us out and lend a helping hand. With deepest appreciation for the many favors he has done for us as individuals and as a class, we dedicate 'The Hourglass' to Mr. Gallucci.'

The class also gave Mr. Gallucci a watch at the senior class banquet in June. He was always there when he was needed. He will not be in his usual office in the high school this year. He has resigned to become guidance director for the Norwell School System. Norwell's gain is certainly a great loss to the youth of Wilmington. Mr. Gallucci has been at Wilmington for the past eight years. During that time he has become a friend and counselor to hundreds of Wilmington's youth. He was admired by fellow faculty members, parents, students and the school administration. May he have the best of luck in his new position.

Dear Larz,

It is a funny thing that you wrote last week, about the Narrow Gauge. My Uncle Fred, in Burlington, was telling me just two weeks ago, that Parker was my grandmother's half brother.

He lost everything, and he left Winchester, where he lived, in a horse and buggy and went up to Presque Isle, Maine.

There he prospered, in the growing of seed potatoes. When he died he had three good sized farms. His grandchildren are living there today.

(Name withheld by request)

Dear Larz,

Since Jack and I began working with the Salvation Army unit here in Wilmington, we have become more and more aware of a need that must be met.

Frequent calls come in asking us for assistance in finding someone to help out in homes when emergency situations arise. Often funds are available and many times the people calling us are willing and able to pay for help if it could be found.

We had considered running an ad in the classified sections of the local papers, but failed to come up with anything that would explain what we are trying to do.

Could you help us through the Town Crier, try to find those people who might be able to lend the hand? We would be interested in anyone who might have a few hours several days a week, or individuals who might be able to stay around the clock for several days at a time. In many instances, assistance with household chores is all that is needed.

Perhaps one of your readers could come up with an idea that could help us out.

Sincerely,
Mrs. J.P. Silvers
Salem Street

Dear Editor:

'Tis a pity that your editorial concerning Mr. McNiff was not accompanied by an appropriate cartoon depicting the Sheer Genius.

To no avail this humble reader researched dictionaries for the proper phraseology meaning the performance of paid professional service, but alas poor Webster could only advise 'COMPLIANCE'.

'Sheer Genius' most definitely applies if used as follows:

Sheer - very thin and steeply, as Mr. McNiff is both tall and slender.

Genius - a person gifted with guiding spirit, natural fitness, aptitude and talent befitting both Mr. Guarino and Mr. McNiff.

The kudos should originate, however, with the Library Trustees who astutely selected Mr. McNiff as the program planning consultant and the Permanent Building Committee who selected Mr. Guarino, a most complacent (sic) and co-operative architect, and united these two talented gentlemen to produce the results that have evidently impressed the Editor with favor.

'Sheer Genius', i.e., unmixed, absolute, exceptional mental and creative power has certainly been displayed by both committees in their choice of consultants and are to be heartily congratulated for their efforts in behalf of the Town.

J. Henry Regan.

For more editorial comments on Mr. McNiff the Town Crier recommends that Reader Regan read last week's Pilot.

Middlesex Canal, again

Five Water Storage Ponds proposed

Five or six large storage ponds, for fresh water, might possibly be located in Wilmington, sometime in the future, if the recommendations of a study made for the State Legislature, by the Water Resources Commission, were ever put into effect.

The booklet containing the report (House No. 4100) is rare, only 50 copies having been printed. The chances that there will be legislative action as a result of the report within the immediate future are extremely rare.

The recommendations are a serious look ahead at the future, to the year 2020.

It is proposed to divert waters from the Concord River, in North Billerica, using the old Middlesex Canal, to the Ipswich River in Wilmington, for the purpose of supplying additional water to the downstream cities and towns.

A total of 34 retaining basins, or ponds, are proposed to be constructed, some or all, or perhaps even others. These basins would receive excess waters during the winter months, and supply water as needed during the summer months.

Depending on the events of the time, five or less basins would be constructed in Wilmington.

The largest pond in Wilmington, proposed by the study, would be caused by a dam to be built 100 feet upstream from Federal Street on the Maple Meadow Brook.

The resulting pond would cover an area of 300 acres, and part of the inundated land would be that portion of Wilmington where Kelley Road and Nunn Road now are, up to Adams Street. A total of 30 homes would be affected, if the dam were to be constructed.

Another large pond proposed for Wilmington would have a dam 1100 feet upstream from Shawsheen Ave on Lubbers Brook. The pond would be from 120 to 240 acres in area, and would, among other things, flood the old Wilmington-Billerica airport.

About the same size is another proposed pond that would flood the area the town has just taken for a new well field, off Butters Row, and the area where the new well field is located, off Chestnut St.

The dam would be a few hundred feet upstream from the old Middlesex Canal, and the pond would be from 100 to 260 acres in size. Also to be flooded would be a part of the land proposed for the extension of the Garden of Eden Country Club.

A pond is also proposed for Saw Mill Brook, at the old site of Clapp's Mill, near the Burlington line, on Mill Road.

The pond would cover 40 to 60 acres, and would be mostly in Burlington, where about 40 homes would be affected.

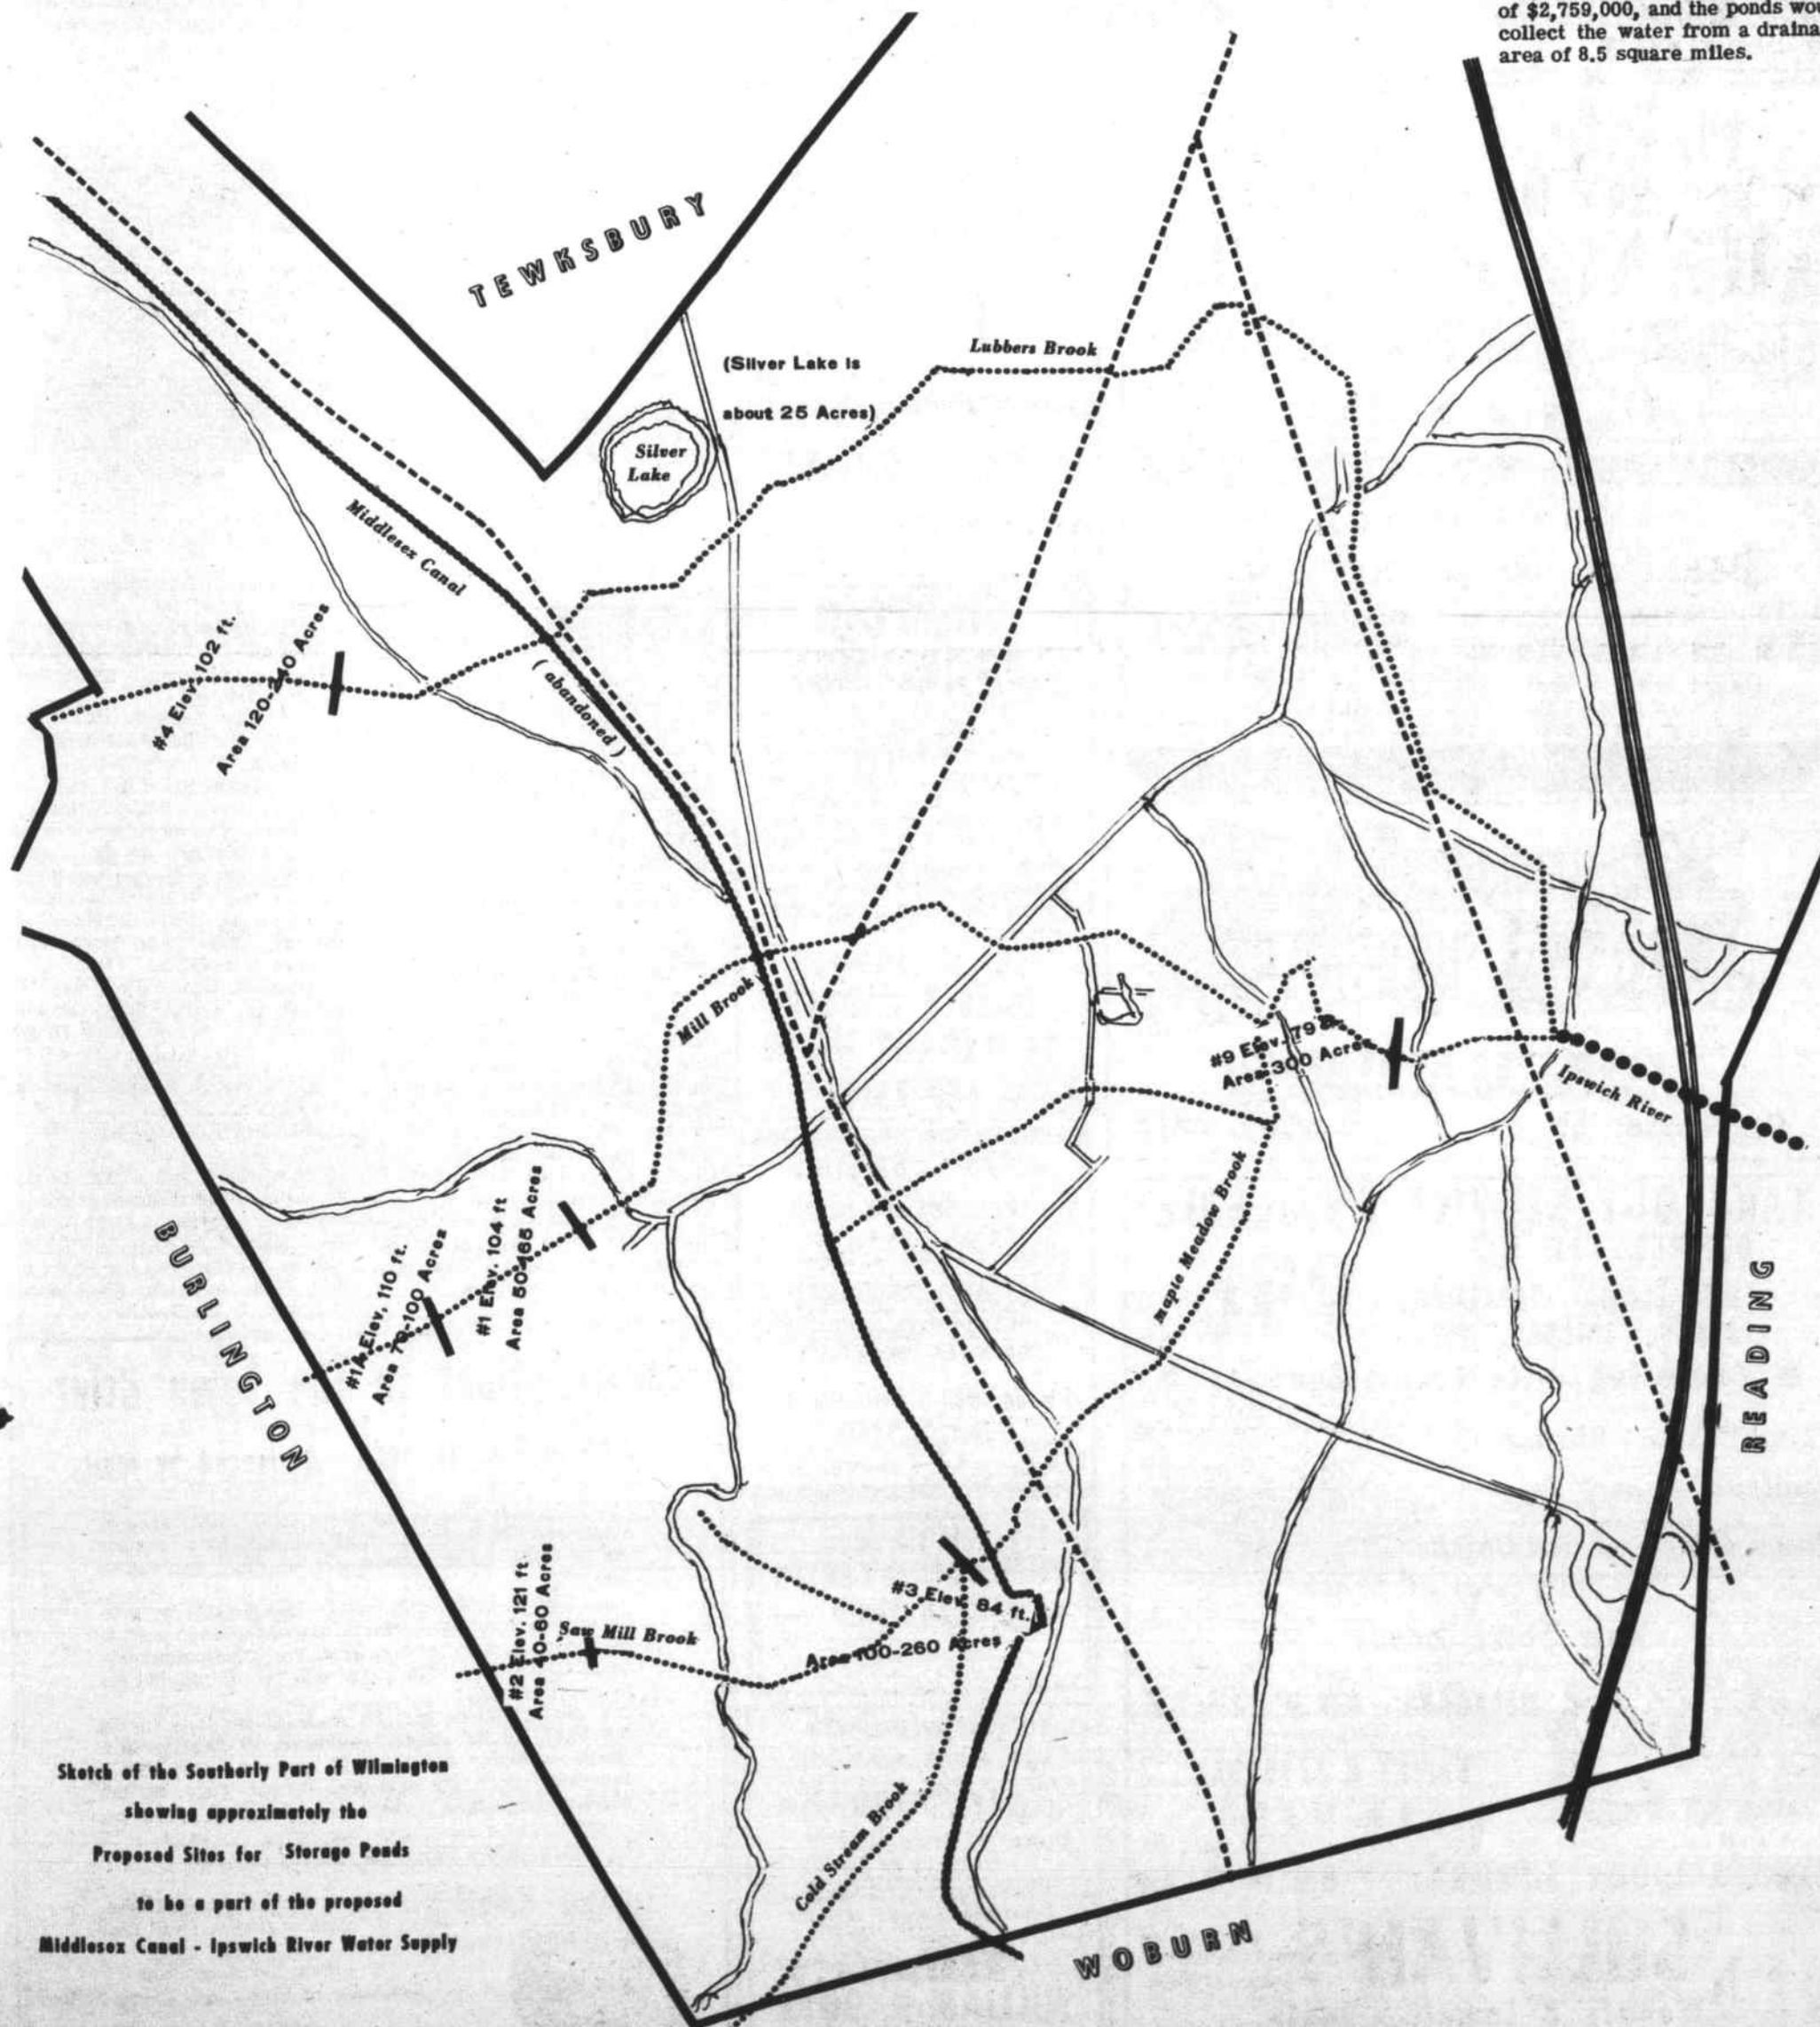

Two ponds, one or the other, are proposed for the stream that crosses Burlington Avenue near the Old Age Housing Development - Mill Brook.

The upstream pond would be mostly in Burlington, with its dam being 2550 feet upstream on Mill Brook. It would flood 70 to 100 acres of Wilmington and Burlington.

The alternative, known as #1, would have its dam 700 feet upstream from Burlington Avenue. The resulting pond would flood the lowest portion of Roberts Road, and the water is described as being at the cellar door sill of #12 and #14 Roberts Road, as well as at #8 Del Drive.

A total area of 50 to 160 acres would be flooded by this pond, which would include the area in the alternative pond (#1A).

The total estimated cost of the Wilmington Ponds, if they were constructed, according to the survey, would be in the neighborhood of $2,759,000, and the ponds would collect the water from a drainage area of 8.5 square miles.

The Thiel's trip to California

Mr. and Mrs. Anthon Thiel, of Atlantic Avenue, spent the month of July visiting their daughter Mrs. Paul Ayotte and family of Torrence California. Mrs. Ayotte is the former Lauretta Thiel of Wilmington.

Little did Mrs. Thiel imagine the terrible rioting that would take place two weeks later only 25 miles from Torrence. She was assured by her daughter, when she called by telephone, that even though some white suburbs had been threatened, all was well in Torrence. Even so, prudent families refrain from travelling to the public beaches and parks and many householders are arming themselves, an act unheard of since the days of the wild west.

The highlight of the trip, Mrs. Thiel said, was to see her daughter in good health and to visit with her four lovely grandchildren. By far, this was the most wonderful part of her vacation.

The TWA Jet flight took only five hours compared to 12 hours needed by the conventional propeller engine plane. She said the trip was as smooth as silk, especially coming home.

While in California, the Thiels explored Disney Land, Knott's Berry Farm, and San Simeon, the famous castle of William Randolph Hearst, and many missions and churches.

They visited a marvelous Zoo in San Diego. It was enormous, so large that visitors tour it in a bus! The animals are provided habitats so roomy and natural that one is almost fooled into believing that the jungle or mountain to which certain animals are indigenous actually exists in the zoo. There are running brooks and an aviary twenty stories high complete with trees, bushes, etc. The birds are free to live as they would in the strange lands from whence they came. Even the foods set out for the birds are actually the same as they would find in their native countries.

Mrs. Thiel tells of having lunch in Anderson's Restaurant which is in the middle of the desert. The restaurant is famous for Pea Soup and its extensive wine cellar. They were invited to visit the wine cellar and were offered a glass of a most delicious cherry liqueur. The Anderson 'Oasis' is also a gift shop, which the Thiels found handy considering they have 10 grandchildren.

Santa Barbara, with its picturesque beauty, impressed the Thiels and they visited the mission located there. The original hats of the first missionaries were preserved in glass cases. Along the roadway to some of the missions were posts with bells. The word 'Real' was written on the posts which perhaps had been signposts for the first padres who had walked into the wilderness to build their mission houses.

One interesting tourist attraction in Los Angeles was a pair of conical towers made of cement and imbedded with bits of broken tonic bottles, chinaware, pottery etc. The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce attaches importance to these towers which had been constructed by an old Italian immigrant some years ago in his spare time. The towers which are very high and adorn the yard of the constructor's home, are hideous to behold. The neighbors in that section of the city (Watts), the scene of so much racial violence, tried to petition for their removal as eye sores. However, not only were they denied such a petition but were told that the strange towers, called the Towers of Watt, were considered by the city to be prime tourist attractions.
